

Nepali School in New Jersey

(Enroll soon, 50% seats already filled)

Nepali Language classes in New Jersey will begin on September of this year. Jersey based Nepali parents and Murray Hill Chinese School (MHCS) has worked together to bring you this program. Our goal is to teach kids basic Nepali reading and writing skills. While doing so kids will also be introduced to Nepali culture. We are volunteer run school and look forward to parents' involvement and participation in making upcoming Academic year a successful one.

FONNJ is supporting us by encouraging its members to be part of this school.

School Detail:

Classes are offered as part of Murray Hill Chinese School (MHCS) curriculum.
www.mhcs-nj.org

Location:

Watchung Hills Regional High School
108 Stirling Road, Warren, NJ 07059

Classes and Fees:

Nepali Language Level 1 (under 8 year olds) at $200 per Year
Nepali Language Level 2 (8 plus year olds) at $200 per Year

Note: Second sibling 10% discount is available. Cultural Classes will be offered at additional fee.

Important: Seating is limited to 20 students in each level. They are allocated based on first come, first serve basis.

Schedule:

Language classes will be 50 minutes each session.
Classes meet every Saturday between 12:30 PM to 3:30 PM except for regular school holidays from September 2010 to June 2011.

If you are interested enrolling your child, please send an email to nepalischoolnj@gmail.com and request registration materials or call the admission coordinator at 732-642-9466.