

Nepali Teej Celebration in New Jersey

The legend of Hartalika Teej is mentioned in Hindu mythological texts and Puranas. After the death of Goddess Sati Devi, Shiva ignored the whole world and as well Goddess Parvati Devi. To get Shiva back, Parvathi observed severe penance. After the severe penance of Parvati for several years, Lord Shiva noticed her love and affection towards him and married her. As a commemoration of Goddess Parvati's love towards Shiva, Hartalika Teej is observed.

On the day of Hartalika Vrat, women worship Goddess Parvati and to please her they offer some special prayers. This vrata is also performed for family health, prosperity and wellness.

Venue: Shri Krishna Vrundavana, 215 May street, Edison, NJ 08837, USA

http://www.krishnavrunda.org/NE_calendar.htm -

Date: 23rd-Aug-09, Sunday

Time: 7pm - 8pm (sharp)

RSVP by: 21st-Aug-09

Pundit: Hari Adhikari (347-517-9991)

Pooja/Prasad Co-ordinator: Email to kalpu.risal@gmail.com (908.217.5863)